| National rules for applications      | Exclusion criteria   |   |
|   | Any grant application that fails to meet any of the criteria in this section shall be rejected on grounds of failure to meet the technical eligibility criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Failure to be submitted in a timely manner by the deadline for submission in printed form;</li> <li>- Failure to be completed with a computer;</li> <li>- Failure to be submitted on the appropriate application forms (use of incorrect forms);</li> <li>- Failure to be hand signed by the authorised representative.</li> </ul> |   |

|---|--|
|   | Eligibility exclusion criteria by call In case of failure to meet the criteria under this chapter, applicants shall have two business days to amend their application in line with the guidelines. Potential calls to amend shall be dispatched in the following cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- When original signatures are present, but not the stamp of the organisation;</li> <li>- When the required annexes are not enclosed to the application (agenda/invitation/programme);</li> <li>- When the grant application was received after the deadline and the date of its submission by post is not clear from the envelope.</li> </ul> Calls to amend and deadline A call to amend shall be delivered only by e-mail to the e-mail address of the contact person provided in the grant application. The deadline for amendment (two business days) shall begin to run the next business day after the sending date of the e-mail. An amended application shall be submitted by registered mail within the deadline and in the manner as set forth in the "National rules for applications" chapter herein. In case of failure to meet the eligibility criteria, an application shall be rejected before the content evaluation stage. |
| Assessment procedure                         | The criteria for awarding grants are set forth in more detail in the assessment sheets for each measure. These shall be published on the CMEPIUS web site, together with the grant application forms. The Programme Operator shall submit an application that meets the eligibility criteria (legal and technical criteria under the call) for an assessment of its content to least one assessor. In case of certain measures that are based on real costs, an assessor (or assessors) may reduce the amount of the proposed co-financing. The Programme Operator shall also undertake to perform a finance eligibility review to check the validity of the calculation of the grant proposal in accordance with the rules under the call.   |
| Appeal                                       | Applicants may appeal the technical realisation of the procedure. Applicants who are rejected due to their failure to meet the legal and technical criteria under the call or because of procedural deficiencies or irregularities may appeal this decision with the National Committee of the Slovene Scholarship Fund SI04 EEA/NFM within 15 days upon receipt of a written notice. Appeals shall not suspend the execution of the decision appealed or the signing of contracts with the selected applications.  |
| National administrative eligibility criteria | In case a project is applied for by an organisation that is member of a Slovene university, such applications shall be completed on behalf of the university, i.e. the application shall be signed by the rector or his/her authorised representative. Eligibility to participate shall be verified at the level of the member of the university. The above also applies to Slovene school centres, for which an application shall be completed on behalf of the centre, and not on behalf of an individual school.   |
